

MOUNT BROWN LOOKOUT

 75

Mount Brown, which is 342m above sea level, is within five minutes of the York town site. Mount Brown provides a beautiful 360-degree panoramic view of York and its surrounds.

It is also a wonderful setting for a picnic and barbecue.

Pioneer Drive, York

SUSPENSION BRIDGE AVON PARK

 77

The first temporary bridge over the Avon, was built by convicts around 1853. The bridge has been rebuilt from time to time and was finally reconstructed in 1988. The original swing bridge, built in 1889, at this location, was completely rebuilt to a modified design in 1988 due to safety concerns.

Low Street, York (end of Avon Park)

YORK BUSHLAND GARDEN

The Bushland Garden contains a wide range of wheatbelt plants and species native to the York Shire.

The York Branch of The Wildflower Society of Western Australia work to maintain the bushland garden for locals and visitors to enjoy any time of the year, with September to November the peak time for flowering.

The Bushland Garden site was originally a clay pit for brick making. After the Meckering earthquake in 1968, the York Royal Hotel was demolished and was buried in the pit.

Corner of Ford and Grey Street, York - Free entry.

OLD SANDALWOOD YARDS & TIPPERARY SCHOOL MUSEUM

 56  60

Sandalwood was one of the early Colony's major exports. Cutters made a living bush felling the sandalwood which was brought to these yards. Sandalwood was stacked upright in the open to dry and then carted to Fremantle to be shipped overseas. Tipperary School Museum (pictured) provides an insight into schooling in the region in the 1800's. The inside area of Tipperary School Museum is not accessible to wheelchair users. The Sandalwood yards and Tipperary School Museum is located on the corner Avon Terrace & Ford Street. Open the fourth weekend of each month. 10am – 2pm Saturdays and Sundays or by prior arrangement.
